

JOBSITE DELIVERY*

Materials delivered directly to the jobsite so you stay on schedule

Sometimes you need materials delivered directly to your jobsite, so you can stay productive and on schedule. That is why Hilti offers Jobsite Delivery. With jobsite delivery, we deliver your new tools and products the next day — in most cases by 10:30 a.m.

JOBSITE DELIVERY MADE EASY

- Simply place your order by 5:00 p.m. on the day before you need your order.
- Include your special instructions, such as jobsite contact name and phone number to call once courier arrives on site.
- Hilti will confirm your order has been received by email. If your emailed confirmation receipt reads before 5:00 p.m., your order was received on time.
